VISIT OF PRESIDENT GERALD R. FORD, MEMBERS OF CONGRESS AND
SUPREME COURT TO PHILADELPHIA, SEPTEMBER 6, 1974.

ON SEPTEMBER 6, 1974, A CONFIDENTIAL SOURCE, WHO HAS FURNISHED RELIABLE INFORMATION IN THE PAST, ADVISED THAT NO ONE FROM THE VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR/WINTER SOLDIER ORGANIZATION (VVAW/WSO) CHAPTER AT ONEONTA, NY, OR UPSTATE NEW YORK IS AWARE OF THE PROPOSED DEMONSTRATION REGARDING PRESIDENT FORD'S APPEARANCE IN PHILADELPHIA, PA., ON SEPTEMBER 6, 1974.

THE VVAW WAS FORMED IN 1967 AS AN ORGANIZATION OF VIETNAM VETERANS TO PROTEST AMERICAN INVOLVEMENT IN THE WAR IN SOUTHEAST ASIA. SINCE THAT TIME VVAW LEADERS HAVE TOLD

MEMBERS THE VVAW IS A REVOLUTIONARY GROUP, NOT "JUST ANOTHER GROUP OF WAR VETERANS." ALSO, THE MEMBERSHIP HAS BEEN TOLD THE VVAW HAS BEEN ASKED TO COOPERATE ON AN INTERNATIONAL LEVEL WITH MANY ORGANIZATIONS, INCLUDING COMMUNIST AND MAOIST GROUPS. ADDITIONALLY, IT WAS INDICATED THAT "ANTI-IMPERIALIST GROUPS" CONSIDER THE VVAW A POTENT ORGANIZATION OF SIMILAR STATURE IN THE U.S. IN APRIL, 1973, THE GROUP CHANGED THEIR NAME TO VVAW/WSO SO THAT NON-VETERANS COULD BECOME MEMBERS. CURRENT VVAW/WSO NATIONAL OFFICERS ARE MARXIST-LENINIST ORIENTED AND STRIVE TO EDUCATE THEIR MEMBERSHIP IN MARXIST-LENINIST DOCTRINE.

RECORDS OF THE FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION, ALBANY, NY, INDICATE THAT [REDACTED] AND [REDACTED] ARE THE ONLY KNOWN INDIVIDUALS IN THE STATE OF VERMONT INVOLVED IN VVAW/WSO ACTIVITIES. [REDACTED] AND [REDACTED] RECENTLY ATTENDED AS VVAW/WSO REPRESENTATIVES TO THE CONFERENCE OF ASSOCIATION OF VIETNAMESE PATRIOTS IN CANADA (AVPC), MONTREAL, CANADA, FROM JUNE 7-9, 1974.

AVPC WAS SELF-DESCRIBED IN 1971 AS AN ORGANIZATION THAT SUPPORTS THE NATIONAL LIBERATION FRONT OF SOUTH VIETNAM

AGAINST THE UNITED STATES AND SOUTH VIETNAMESE GOVERNMENT.
AVPC CONSISTED OF SIXTY ACTIVE MEMBERS AND SOME SUPPORTERS, MOSTLY IN MONTREAL, CANADA, ALL BEING STUDENTS OR EX-STUDENTS FROM SOUTH VIETNAM.

[REDACTED] IS THE ONLY ACTIVE MEMBER OF VVAW/WSO IN THE STATE OF VERMONT AND HE IS DESCRIBED AS A WHITE MALE, BORN
[REDACTED], NY, 6', 185 POUNDS, BROWN
HAIR AND EYES, MEDIUM BUILD AND COMPLEXION AND CURRENT RESIDENCE OF [REDACTED] VERMONT.

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

September 23, 1974

Dear Mr. Kelley:

On behalf of the President, I wish to acknowledge your letter of September 3 inviting him to address the 100th Class of the FBI National Academy on March 20, 1975.

Gerald R. Ford

The President very much appreciates your thoughtfulness in asking him to join you on this important occasion and will give your invitation his most careful consideration as his schedule for the early months of next year is determined. In awareness of the plans you need to make, we will make every effort to let you know something more definite no later than the First of next January.

With the President's best wishes,

Sincerely,

WARREN RUSTAND

Gentlemen:

Gerald Ford

Our family is terribly concerned about the safety of President Ford and Dr. Kissinger in Russia. With no Vice President or Secretary of State to take over in the event that the two men were killed, deliberately or in a joint accident,
we would be extremely vulnerable to enemy attack.

We hope and pray that something humanely possible is being done to avert this disaster. Please pass this concern on to those in authority who might be able to do something about this terrifying situation.

Career Criminals

- Realign investigative and prosecutive resources against violent repeat offenders.
- Improve cooperation between investigative agencies to better identify the career criminal by improved methods of collection and dissemination of information on them.
- Establish major violators unit in each United States Attorney's office staffed by the most experienced and qualified Assistant United States Attorneys.
- Minimize the use of plea bargaining by career criminals and emphasize the use of the Special Dangerous Offenders provisions of title 18.
- Assure that the judge has the maximum amount of relevant criminal information possible at each stage of proceedings concerning a career criminal.
- Re-examine the operations of the Bureau of Prisons to determine what changes are needed in their programs and facilities for career criminals.
- Maximize the use of alternatives to incarceration for offenders who pose little or no threat to society.
- Propose legislation to modify the Bail Reform Act of 1966 to permit consideration of danger in setting bail conditions, including detention of especially dangerous persons.
- Propose legislation to set minimum mandatory sentences for such offenses as narcotics trafficking and use of a weapon in the course of a crime.
- Propose legislation to provide mandatory life sentences in certain capital offenses and for persons convicted three times of offenses involving kidnapping, arson, mayhem, or bombing.

Civil Rights

- Propose legislation to extend the Voting Rights Act.
- Assure equal employment in hiring for university faculties.
- Provide evenhanded enforcement of civil rights laws.
- Assure rights of Indians.
- Propose legislation to provide authority for assuring constitutional rights of persons involuntarily confined in juvenile institutions and institutions for the mentally retarded.

Effective Enforcement of Offenses Involving Concurrent Federal and State Jurisdiction

- Create Federal-State Law Enforcement Committees for more effective coordination of law enforcement efforts in cases of concurrent jurisdiction of offenses.
- Convert these committees ultimately to permanent advisory committees to monitor all aspects of concurrent jurisdiction and enforcements and make recommendations to Federal, state, and local governments concerning effective crime control.

7/1

Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs

- Implement DEA programs to track and document the flow of heroin from Turkey; and assist other countries to disrupt and immobilize narcotics traffic.
  - Support Mexican efforts to eradicate opium production.
  - Increase the effectiveness of Southwest Border operations by establishing an intelligence operations center to pool information from Federal agencies.
  - Improve domestic enforcement efforts by increasing the level of violators arrested, presenting corroborative evidence in support of agent testimony, provide improved regional intelligence and technical support, and support and focus state and local enforcement efforts.

Illegal Aliens

- H.R. 982, to make it illegal to employ illegal aliens (unless passed during this Congress).
- Procedural changes relating to deportation of aliens for fraudulent entry (S.3244, H.R. 1350)
- Elimination of the automatic stay of deportation for aliens who appeal.
- Make illegal entry into the United States a continuing offense while the person remains in the United States.
- Make unauthorized entry after deportation a misdemeanor in order to permit hearings of these cases by United States Magistrates.
- Changes in the Immigration and Nationality Act relating to certification of aliens for employment and deportation (legislative proposal #633).
- Authorize summary seizure and forfeiture of vessels, vehicles, and aircraft used for smuggling of aliens.
- Impose a civil or criminal penalty upon an illegal alien who accepts employment in the United States. The criminal penalty would be a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not exceeding $1000 and 1 year imprisonment. The civil penalty would be a fine of $1000.
- Impose a minimum civil penalty of $5,000 on any individual who directly or indirectly knowingly aids in the employment of an illegal alien in the United States. A $5,000 penalty would be imposed for each alien so aided.
- Authorize courts to award up to one half of the fine imposed to any person or persons who give information leading to imposition of the penalty.
- Support of the FY 1975 budget supplemental for immigration enforcement.
- Inter-Departmental groups on the illegal alien problem (Cabinet Committee) and on Mexican-American cooperation on illegal alien problems.

~~44-1117~~

---

- Establish the Attorney General's White-Collar Crime Committee to identify violations to be given priority prosecution and to assure coordination of support activities.
- Coordinate the development of an education program for detection and prevention of white collar crime.
- Submit legislation for suits by the United States for civil penalties for consumer fraud and for private damage suits to follow such suits.
- Submit legislation making it a federal offense to steal marketable securities from federally insured brokerage houses.
- Endorse early passage of S.1, which contains provisions for increased fines for corporate violators of federal criminal laws and for setting the maximum fines at twice the amount gained by the offender or twice the damage to the victim.

Organized Crime

- Evaluate impact of Department of Justice activities on organized crime in conjunction with preparation of FY 1975-77 program plans.
- Increase use of attorneys from Civil and Tax Divisions in organized crime program to expand the use of injunctions, forfeitures, and other civil and tax sanctions.
- Seek increased State and local investigative and prosecutive involvement in the national effort against organized crime.
- Establish an LEAA initiative on funding establishment of organized crime units in State and local law enforcement agencies.
- Submit legislation to improve method of collection of criminal fines similar to the provisions in S.1 Amended, making the procedure similar to that for tax liens.
- Submit legislation to permit the impressing of a constructive trust in favor of the United States on the profits of crime, rather than just reaching the fruits of crime.
- Endorse early enactment of S.1, the proposed revision of the Federal Criminal Code.

Career Criminals

FBI COMMENTS:

The FBI agrees with the items submitted by the Department of Justice concerning career criminals.

Criminal repeaters, meaning persons with an average of four arrests for criminal offenses, account for 2/3 to 3/4 of all arrests each year. It is completely obvious from this information that criminal repeaters substantially contribute to the volume of crime which occurs in this country. In view of this, we must specifically address this segment of the crime problem.

The National Crime Information Center (NCIC) was developed by local, state, and Federal law enforcement agencies to insure that law enforcement could have immediately available information concerning crime and criminals so that proper action could be taken to arrest wanted persons and/or recover stolen property. The NCIC is a prime example of cooperation between local, state, and Federal levels of Government. NCIC is an example of New Federalism at its best.

Local, state, and Federal law enforcement agencies recognize the necessity to have criminal history information in NCIC so that it will be immediately available, not only to local, state, and Federal law enforcement, but also immediately available to prosecutors, U. S. Attorneys, judges and corrections personnel. Without proper information concerning an individual's criminal history, prosecutors and U. S. Attorneys cannot be in a position to properly request a realistic level of bail for an arrested offender. Further, criminal history information is of great value to prosecutors to determine whether plea bargaining should be considered or whether the offender should be placed under a major violator priority to insure that he is at least temporarily removed from society as quickly as possible. The courts need criminal history information so that proper decisions can be made by judges upon conviction of the offender. Corrections personnel also need criminal history data so that proper handling and/or treatment of the offender can be realized. Without accurate criminal history data, each branch of criminal justice ends up making decisions based more upon emotion than upon reality. If the administration of criminal justice is to properly address the crime problem and specifically the problem of the career criminal, then NCIC and the Criminal History System must be enthusiastically endorsed. Without unqualified support these systems cannot properly develop and operate so that the various branches of criminal justice will have facts with which to intelligently operate. Again, as we all know, facts for decision making must be available at the time the decision is made and not subsequent thereto.

It is essential that we have a viable Computerized Criminal History system in this country. This is necessary not only for immediate decision making by the various branches of criminal justice, but also for the purpose of research and analysis. Without proper research and analysis, government at all levels and the administration of criminal justice will not be able to measure results or failures which are occurring at various points within criminal justice. In other words, we need to measure these matters throughout the entire criminal justice cycle to identify areas of weakness as well as areas of strength. After identification of such areas, we can then take necessary action to remedy conditions which are not producing properly.

Speedy Justice

1. Criminal justice proposals:

- Propose legislation to limit use of the exclusionary rule to egregious cases of illegal searches and seizures, and to provide a civil remedy for all illegal searches and seizures.

FBI COMMENTS:

This item proposes legislation . . . "to provide a civil remedy for all illegal searches and seizures." It is not indicated what form such civil remedy would take. The FBI believes that this remedy should be cast in terms such as those provided for in H. R. 10439. That bill would amend Title 28 of the United States Code to provide for an exclusive remedy against the United States in suits based upon acts or omissions of employees of the United States.

The Department of Justice favors the passage of this bill and the then Acting Assistant Attorney General, Civil Division, Irving Jaffe, testified in favor thereof on March 27, 1974, before the Subcommittee on Claims and Governmental Relations of the Committee on the Judiciary, House of Representatives.

Organized Crime

FBI COMMENTS:

FBI efforts in the fight against organized crime-- which have resulted in more than 5,800 convictions of hoodlum, gambling, and vice figures since the enactment of the first major antiracketeering statutes in 1961--are now concentrating on quality rather than quantity. This is being done by keying investigations to identify top Syndicate leaders, developing prosecutable data stemming from their illicit operations, and cutting off their primary sources of income.

During Fiscal Year 1974, for example, FBI investigations led to the conviction of national Syndicate functionaries in New York City, Philadelphia, New England, and Cleveland. In addition, seven other ranking Syndicate officials are among the nearly 2,600 organized crime subjects currently in various stages of prosecution in FBI cases.

On the financial side, FBI efforts against the organized underworld in the past four years have resulted in recoveries and confiscations amounting to nearly $17,000,000; fines exceeding $4,000,000; and the dissemination of information to other Federal, state, and local law enforcement agencies, leading to the seizure of some $136,000,000 worth of illicit drugs and narcotics, $7,000,000 worth of cash, property, and wagering paraphernalia, more than $3,000,000 worth of counterfeit bills, and the assessment of tax liens against $16,000,000 worth of property arising out of Federal gambling cases.

White-Collar Crime

- Submit legislation making it a federal offense to steal marketable securities from federally insured brokerage houses.

By letter to the Assistant Attorney General, Criminal Division, dated October 9, 1974, with a copy for the Assistant Attorney General, Office of Legislative Affairs, the FBI set forth its views in detail opposing new legislation which would make all thefts of marketable securities from a Federally insured brokerage house a Federal crime. It is the FBI's belief that the current Interstate Transportation of Stolen Property Statute adequately represents the Federal interest in this area. Furthermore, granting an exception to the securities industry by extending investigative jurisdiction to all of its thefts would undoubtedly cause other businesses to seek similar exceptions.

FBI COMMENTS:

As part of the Government's overall campaign to reduce drug-trafficking in the United States, the FBI has assigned a number of liaison Agents to concentrate attention on these matters, put its far-flung network of underworld sources on a sustained alert, and launched an intensive program of debriefing all its organized crime subjects for whatever knowledge they may have in the field of narcotics. As a result, the FBI has disseminated more than 46,000 items of criminal intelligence information to Federal, state, and local narcotics agencies during the past three years (under its recently intensified program), leading to the above-mentioned confiscations and nearly 3,600 arrests by the recipient agencies.

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

January 20, 1975

Dear Mr. Kelley:

Careful consideration has been given to your invitation to the President to address the 100th Class of the FBI National Academy on March 20, 1975.

The President would like very much to be able to accept. Unfortunately, the heavy demands of his official schedule make it impossible for him to do so. He has asked that I again express his appreciation for your thoughtfulness of him and that I convey his very best wishes for a successful occasion.

Sincerely,

Warren S. Rustand

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

March 17, 1975

Gerald R. Ford

Dear Mr. Kelley:

I am happy to extend my warmest congratulations to you, your associates and all the members of the one hundredth FBI National Academy Session on this very special occasion.

With the graduation of this fine class, the FBI National Academy marks a significant milestone in the continuing and vital progress of law enforcement training. The cooperative services of the FBI in the field of police training, especially at your notable educational facilities at Quantico, Virginia, have greatly enhanced the stature of the law enforcement profession.

Our society has undergone many changes since the first session of the FBI National Academy was convened in 1935. That trailblazing class of twenty-three members would find a far more sophisticated curriculum awaiting it on return to the Academy today. But the enthusiasm and dedication of those first lawmen set high standards which always remain the same.

I find it most significant that the roster of the class of 1975 includes sixteen officers from foreign countries. This is reflective of the growing inter-dependence in the world and of the widely-shared conviction that we must all work together to resolve our common problems.

I want to take this historic opportunity to assure, not only the members of this one hundredth class, but all our nation's law enforcement officials, that I am well aware of the problems they face day by day in dealing with crime in our society. It is not their problem alone. It is not the Government's problem alone. It is a challenge that to all of us -- one that requires the full cooperation of all citizens with those who are charged with the duties of law enforcement in our communities.

The President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. President:

The graduates of the 100th Session of the FBI National Academy were indeed appreciative of your inspirational message of March 17th. It is certainly encouraging to know that you have such high regard for the National Academy program and all of this Nation's dedicated law enforcement personnel. We in the FBI feel that the professional training of law enforcement officers is a key element in our common battle against crime. We look forward to continuing our efforts in this essential area and are deeply grateful for your staunch support.

I thought you might like to know I had your letter read to those assembled at the graduation exercises yesterday.

Sincerely,

NOTE: Original letter being held by Mr. Jenkins.

SUBJECT: GRADUATION EXERCISES
100TH SESSION
FBI NATIONAL ACADEMY
MARCH 20, 1975

Ford Gerald

I believe the commencement exercises of the 100th Session, FBI National Academy, held on 3/20/75, went very well and, of course, one of the highlights was the reading of the President's letter to Mr. Kelley. It is a very prolaw enforcement communication and speaks well of the FBI's contributions to the law enforcement community, especially in Paragraphs 2, 3 and 4. The last paragraph on Page 1 is addressed, actually, to the entire law enforcement community.

If the President's Staff will approve, I believe we should publish this letter verbatim in the Law Enforcement Bulletin (LEB), highlighted prominently in that issue which reports the graduation of the 100th Session. I believe the LEB would be the best medium because all National Academy graduates still in law enforcement and some of those who have retired from law enforcement are on the mailing list to receive the LEB; also, the LEB is distributed to law enforcement officials and personnel on an extensive basis and undoubtedly all would be pleased to note that the President is aware of the problems they face day to day in dealing with crime in our society and that he urges the extending of cooperation by citizens to those charged with the duties of law enforcement.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

(1) That attached letter to The Attorney General, copy to the Deputy Attorney General, forwarding to them a copy of the President's letter to Mr. Kelley regarding graduation of 100th Session, FBI National Academy, and which was read at the commencement exercises, be sent.

Honorable Gerald R. Ford
The President
The White House
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. President:

Enclosed is a copy of the June, 1975, edition of the FBI Law Enforcement Bulletin. Beginning on page 19, an article is featured on the graduation ceremonies of the 100th Session of the FBI National Academy.

Many law enforcement officers I know throughout the country are greatly encouraged by your continuing support and outspoken concern for the heavy responsibilities we have to shoulder.
It is a special pleasure to recognize your efforts in our behalf by publishing in the graduation article your letter to me on that occasion.

Sincerely,

Dear Clarence:

Thank you for your note of June 2 and the copy of the June issue of the FBI Law Enforcement Bulletin. I appreciate your courtesy in publishing my letter, and, of course, I'm pleased to learn of the favorable reaction it has drawn from among our law enforcement officers. It was thoughtful of you to let me know.

Warmest personal regards,

WHITE-COLLAR CRIME

It has been estimated that White-Collar Crime (WCC) costs our nation over $40 billion annually and constitutes 90% of all crime committed even though only 10% of all WCC are believed to be reported. Reported bank shortages resulting from fraud and embezzlement reached almost $190 million during the 1975 Fiscal Year. In over 60 instances around the country the individual shortages were over $1 million.

WCC, or economic crimes, covers a broad range of deceitful and fraudulent practices ranging from the auto and home repair rackets to large scale embezzlements, fraudulent bankruptcies, and investment swindles. The victims come from all walks of life, including persons of various levels of financial means while the criminals are persons who, due to their position, take advantage of those who have placed confidence and trust in them.

WCC, being invisible, does not have the impact that common street crimes do, therefore, it is difficult to awaken constituents. To ignore WCC is to undercut the integrity of our society, just as we ignore the safety of our society when we fail to cope with common crime.

The business community has evidenced some inability or unwillingness to police its ranks or to materially aid law enforcement agencies in the detection and prosecution of

94-40611-100

WCC. There has been a lack of information and understanding and, in the past, law enforcement agencies have devoted meager resources to the investigation and prosecution of WCC in relation to that expended on street crime.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) has embarked on a four-phase program of intensified investigation, research, training, and public awareness, in an effort to combat these crimes. Manpower devoted to detection and investigation of these matters has doubled in the past three years and it is anticipated that this will increase in the future.

The FBI is training its agent personnel in investigative techniques regarding computer frauds and economic crime. Also, at the FBI National Academy courses are being afforded police officers in this area of investigation as it relates to local crimes. Conferences are being held with the FBI and other Federal investigative agencies as well as with state and local police and prosecutors in an effort to attack this problem on a broad front.

The Department of Justice is taking a leading roll in coordinating efforts of all Federal agencies in the enforcement and prosecution of these crimes. Training seminars have been held with United States Attorneys, their assistants, and Departmental attorneys. Prosecutions undertaken by the Department of Justice have increased 33% as have the resulted convictions.

CRIME IN THE UNITED STATES

One of the major domestic issues facing the American public today is that of crime. Crime is a social problem which affects directly or indirectly the daily life of every American citizen. Crime continues to rise, as seen by the FBI's Uniform Crime Reports, which showed a substantial increase during 1974 and continued increases during 1975. The law enforcement community of the United States is charged with the responsibility of fighting crime, however, without the complete and aggressive support of the American people, this task will go unfulfilled. All Americans must show that they will not tolerate this rise in crime any longer and throw their full support behind the law enforcement and criminal justice agencies dealing with the criminals of this land.

I am sure every American is interested in getting the criminals off the street and recognizes there is a need for swift and sure justice in order to accomplish the required objectives in handling criminals. There is a need to show where the weaknesses and strengths are in our current systems at the Federal, state, and local levels. Law enforcement is attempting to provide meaningful information through the development of computerized criminal justice information systems. These systems will, in the future, provide information to the agency administrators, researchers, and to the public through which decisions can be made and action taken to more successfully handle the criminal offender.

(The FBI would provide for this purpose the most current Uniform Crime Reporting release information as it relates to the percent change in crime in general and the percent change in violent crimes and property crimes.)

CRIME RESISTANCE

A recent Gallup poll showed Americans in the nation's largest cities consider crime their number one community problem. They ranked crime ahead of everything else, including unemployment and the high cost of living.

The restrictions and the deprivation of liberties crime imposes upon Americans in urban areas are factors that should be emphasized to enlist Americans in the cause of crime resistance.

Such prestigious groups as the National Advisory Commission on Criminal Justice Standards and Goals has pointed out that responsible citizen involvement is the key to reducing crime nationally.

The FBI is actively supporting four police departments and the Police Foundation in a new Crime Resistance Program aimed at getting citizens directly involved in anticrime efforts.

FBI Director Clarence M. Kelley, Patrick V. Murphy, president of the Police Foundation, and the chiefs of the four local departments announced its launching July 22 in Washington, D. C.

800-451-1000
94-40611-100

The communities involved are Norfolk, Va.; DeKalb County (Atlanta), Ga.; Birmingham, Ala.; and Wilmington, Del. Teams of FBI Agents and local police, with Police Foundation support, will try to find ways citizens can help deter crime -- specifically in the areas of crimes against the elderly (Wilmington), crimes against women, (Norfolk), crimes involving youths, (DeKalb County) and traffic in stolen property (Birmingham).

Some civic groups officials and individual citizens in those cities already have come forward to offer their assistance.

PRESIDENT'S ANNUAL
STATE OF THE UNION MESSAGE

Fiscal year 1975 has been a banner year for the FBI in its continuing campaign to cripple organized crime activity in this country. Upwards of 1,300 convictions have been recorded against hoodlum, gambling, and vice figures. In addition, leading Syndicate officials in New York City, Buffalo, St. Louis, Detroit, and Kansas City were among those convicted or incarcerated through FBI efforts. Especially noteworthy has been the complete demise of the underworld hierarchy in the Los Angeles area with the incarceration of the top three mob figures.

Currently, more than 1,900 other organized crime subjects are in various stages of prosecution.

On the economic side, recoveries and confiscations in FBI organized crime cases have amounted to more than $5,000,000 during fiscal year 1975, as compared with $3,247,451 for the preceding fiscal year.

Close cooperation between law enforcement agencies and the FBI is one of the key elements which has resulted in such a successful attack against organized crime during the past year. Achievements accomplished by Federal, state, and local authorities as a result of information furnished by the FBI have resulted in the arrests of more than 3,100 organized crime subjects; the confiscation of $17,000,000 worth of illicit drugs; $3,000,000 worth of counterfeit bills; and $2,000,000 worth of cash, property, and wagering paraphernalia, plus assessed tax liens against $3,000,000 worth of property identified in Federal gambling cases.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE FILERE: ~~JACK FORD~~, SON OF PRESIDENT FORD, TRIP THROUGH SUPERIOR NATIONAL FOREST

On September 8, 1975, ~~Stuart Knight~~, Director of the United States Secret Service, telephoned me and said that Jack Ford, son of President Ford, will depart soon from Ely, Minnesota, to take a trip in a canoe through the Superior National Forest. He has waived the protection of the United States Secret Service and Mr. Knight asked if there were any activity in that area where he will be which might indicate the need for any special warning or protection.

I then asked Deputy Associate Director James Adams to call the Minneapolis and Milwaukee Offices so that we could be alerted as to any possible problems. Both offices, I was later informed, reported no known activities. Subsequently, another call was made to indicate that there has been some activity by the Menominee Indians on Wolf River, two hundred miles east of the Superior National Park area but there is no indication that they might go into any other area with their activities. Both offices said they would be careful to keep informed of anything which might come up in the future and would let us know thereupon.

Dear Mr. President:

Enclosed is a copy of the December, 1975, issue of the FBI Law Enforcement Bulletin which contains an article, beginning on page 16, devoted to the dedication of the J. Edgar Hoover F.B.I. Building. Your participation in the dedication ceremonies is, of course, highlighted, and I thought you might be interested in seeing this coverage of the event.

I would like to take this opportunity to once again indicate how deeply honored we were by your appearance on this historic occasion and by the laudatory remarks you made concerning the FBI.

Sincerely yours,

GERALD RUDOLPH FORD, Jr.
SPECIAL INQUIRY - BUREAU FILE 161-9896

PURPOSE:

To recommend transfer of captioned file from my office to the Special File Room.

DETAILS:

Memo 8-14-74 from J. W. Marshall to you reflects Mr. Callahan's instructions that the captioned file containing the results of the extensive Special Inquiry investigation conducted by the Bureau concerning Mr. Ford prior to his designation and confirmation as Vice President be maintained in the Front Office of the then Files and Communications Division, not to be charged out to anyone without the Assistant Director's approval. Also maintained in my Front Office is a correspondence-research file concerning Mr. Ford (94-40611) and a Bureau applicant file (67-221008) captioned "Gerald Rudolph Ford, Jr., Special Agent Applicant."

It is believed that these files more appropriately belong in the Special File Room rather than in my Front Office. In the Special File Room they can be afforded safe-cabinet security in a room to which access is extremely limited and tightly controlled. Former Director Hoover's Official and Confidential files, as well as files relating to Director Kelley, are maintained in the Special File Room at this time.

RECOMMENDATION:

That the Special Inquiry, Special Agent Applicant, and correspondence-research file relating to President Ford be transferred from a cabinet in my Front Office to the Special File Room.

From: Bill Reed
Re: Call from Douglas Marvin
Counsel to the Attorney General

During the Executive Conference I received a call from Douglas Marvin, Counsel to the Attorney General, who advised that the White House was in the process of preparing the State of the Union message and had requested of the Department short summaries of accomplishments and unfinished business to be considered for inclusion in the message. Mr. Marvin, therefore, requested of us the matters which we would like to see included and asked that all such matters be forwarded by this Friday (November 12, 1976).

I asked Mr. Marvin if our reevaluation of domestic intelligence matters into criminal guidelines and the shift to and emphasis of White Collar Crimes and NEI was the kind of thing they would be interested in. He indicated it was and asked that whatever we submitted not exceed two pages. I would think Congressional Oversight and Crime Resistance would be logical inclusions.

I would suggest that a list of what you want included be prepared and that External Affairs prepare the finished product.

I am attaching your Miami Speech which is a good summary of accomplishments to date. As to unfinished business, I am not sure of what you would want included. I am not sure that GAO/FBI guidelines committee is significant enough, but I do feel it should be included as it does deal with performance statistics.

MATERIAL REGARDING THE FBI FOR CONSIDERATION IN CONNECTION WITH THE PRESIDENT'S STATE OF THE UNION MESSAGE

The more than two years of the Ford Administration have been a period of marked progress and substantial change in the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

During this period, new heights have been reached in important areas of FBI investigative achievements; stronger bonds of communication, accountability and oversight have been established between the FBI and others in both the Executive and Legislative Branches of the Government; and a series of programs has been instituted which enhances not only FBI professionalism, but the Bureau's responsiveness to the needs and expectations of the American people.

In the investigative field, the FBI has adopted a "quality over quantity" approach which assures that priority is given to violations which impact most heavily on the fiber and fabric of life in the United States. Thus, the FBI gives preferred attention today to white collar crimes, as well as to organized crime and to bombings and other acts of terrorism.

Nor has there been any lessening of the FBI's vigilance against foreign espionage operations, or against clandestine activities of foreign powers within the United states.

There has, however, been a sharp reduction of domestic security investigations. Under guidelines issued by the Attorney General last March, as well as criteria developed by the Bureau's present executive staff, the number of FBI domestic security cases has sharply decreased.

A multitude of studies and reviews of the FBI's operations, unprecedented in both number and scope, have been undertaken since 1974. In addition to those initiated by the Attorney General and other Department of Justice officials, they include in-depth hearings conducted by committees of the United States Senate and House of Representatives, as well as inquiries and examinations made by the General Accounting Office. Not only has unprecedented FBI cooperation been extended in these reviews, but full consideration has been given to all recommendations and observations made by the examining bodies.

The FBI's commitment to equal employment opportunity is mirrored in its personnel rolls which today are more fully representative of America's entire body of citizens than at any time in the past. Furthermore, career development planning instituted in the mid-1970s is designed to assure every FBI employee maximum opportunity to reach the highest position for which he or she aspires and qualifies.

During the mid-1970s, strong reemphasis has been placed on the FBI's service functions--programs and operations designed to assist and support other law enforcement and criminal justice agencies. Foremost among those initiated in 1976 was the National Executive Institute, an advanced forum for training and development of police executives and administrators, whose program was developed by the FBI in consultation with the Major City Police Chiefs.

In addition, since 1975 the FBI has been actively engaged in a broad-based effort to reduce crime through voluntary programs of citizen crime resistance. In this endeavor, primary emphasis is being placed on working with potential victims of Federal crimes within the FBI's jurisdiction. However, the FBI has also joined with several police departments in pilot programs undertaken to demonstrate that, with guidance from their police, citizens can successfully resist and thereby reduce crime in their community.

Dear Chief:

Now that the election is over and Mr. Carter is going to be our next President, I feel it is only natural that we help the man all we can. I did not vote for Mr. Carter and, personally, I feel that President Ford and Mr. Kissinger did an outstanding job on foreign policy which is so important to this country.

The enclosed editorial from the Kansas City Star covers the subject better than I could. I thought you would like to see a copy of it. It certainly does make one think.

With kindest personal regards, I am

Sincerely,

Ford Restored Respect for U.S. Abroad

By Brian Dunning
A Special Correspondent

London—Now that some of the is settling, permit this non-merican to tell you something needs saying.
Gerald Ford has been a very it President and your decision to elect him was a beautiful e of historic justice. With the efit of distance and hindsight, it ow obvious that this "good and ent man" was never destined to ure by the vote an office which acquired by the turn of events r which neither he nor you had control. The fact that he so rly made it is irrelevant. What tters is that he achieved his ce in history without having to anything. To have made him a rner would have been to deny the alities which made Gerald Ford ique and memorable.
I have a clear recollection of at you Americans were like just ree short years ago, in case you ve forgotten, I will tell you, ere was a general cynicism: so ick and cloying as to be almost ffocating. Americans had be-me obsessively sour and disillusioned—not simply with politicians but with, so it seemed, life itself. It was a mood of sullen resentment which had been building up for a long time and Europeans like myself found it both worrying and distressing. We did not enjoy the prospect of your United States wallowing in self-destruction, rolling in ashes, nervously twitching, and holding your national embarrassment aloft like a ragged banner.

We were sick and tired of Americans parading their shame before us. We were sick and tired of Americans apologizing. We were sick and tired of Americans clad in the rags of Watergate, Vietnam, the CIA, Spiro Agnew and Chappaquiddick. It was terrible. It was more than terrible: It was endless and destructive. Americans had become a nation of introverted bores, perpetually ramming down our polite throats your alleged failures, shortcomings, misdemeanors, tragedies, scandals, defeats, immoralities, miseries, stupidities and fears. You scared the pants off your friends and brought enormous joy to your enemies.

I can still recall a newspaper article over here written by an American whose name is best forgotten, although it remains well known.

The article was headed: "Why I Am Ashamed of My Country." It was brilliant, vitriolic and lucid.
And it turned my stomach.

That was three years ago. A thousand days. It could just as easily be a thousand years. The difference between then and now is the real achievement of Gerald Ford—and don't you forget it.

Those of us who cherish and admire the United States and what it stands for owe that man a debt of gratitude beyond evaluation. It is wholly unimportant that occasionally he was clumsy. It matters not one jot that he sometimes said the wrong thing. It is supremely insignificant that once in awhile he mixed up his geography or messed up his protocol or slipped on the aircraft steps.

It is even more superfluous to point out that his policies were not always successful or that he was at loggerheads with Congress or that he presided over a recession. Only one thing really matters—that he restored some of the old good humor and native confidence of you Americans.

I detect little cynicism these days. Boredom, perhaps—but not cynicism. I meet no Americans who boast of being ashamed of their country. I encounter no sackcloth, no ashes and certainly no general guilt for events which are water under history's bridge.

Americans are inclined to forge
the profound desire of Europeans that the United States should be happy and idealistic. The vision of contented Republic runs very deep in the trans-Atlantic mind. We celebrated the Bicentennial with (I suspect) more passion than yourselves because the concept of America has always meant so much to so many in the narrower lands of the old World.

Simply by being himself, Gera-Ford returned America to its proper course instead of allowing it drift into the wilderness. He completed the miracle without being elected to do it. No victory at polls would have allowed him to prove what he had already accomplished. Mr. Carter, and all of you and all of us, can start with a clean sheet. Thank you, Mr. Ford.
non-Americans think you well.

PURPOSE: To advise the U. S. Army is moving the Presidential papers of President Gerald R. Ford, some of which are classified, from Washington, D. C., to Ann Arbor, Michigan, on or about 1/20/77, and the Army has requested the FBI notify State police agencies through which the convoy will travel.

RECOMMENDATION: 1) That the General Government Crimes Unit (GGCU), General Investigative Division (GID), coordinate this matter with Lt. Col. Carl Lebourdais, Directorate of Military Support (DOMS), U. S. Army, and obtain the itinerary including times, dates, and initial points through which the convoy will travel en route from Andrews Air Force Base to the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan.

2) That the GGCU notify appropriate field divisions who in turn, will notify State police agencies in their respective territories on a need-to-know basis to avoid publicity.

Memorandum to Mr. Gallagher
Re: PRESIDENTIAL PAPERS
PRESIDENT GERALD R. FORD

Lt. Col. Lebourdais stated that DOMS had the mission of collecting the Presidential papers of President Gerald R. Ford from the Executive Office Building and the National Archives, and storing them at the Andrews Air Force Base for shipment on or about 1/20/77 to the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan. These Presidential papers will utilize nine tractor trailers which DOMS will contract out to a commercial carrier. The U. S. Army will furnish military police in three unmarked security vehicles. The nine tractor trailers and three escort vehicles will travel in a convoy from Andrews Air Force Base to Ann Arbor, Michigan.

Lt. Col. Lebourdais stated DOMS had two reasons for contacting the FBI: 1) To notify FBIHQ of the movement of the Presidential papers and, 2) to request the FBI obtain from DOMS the itinerary, including times, dates, and initial points of the convoy so that the FBI could notify on a need-to-know basis those State police agencies through which the convoy will travel.

Lt. Col. Lebourdais was informed Bureau officials would be notified of DOMS' request. The GID recommends the GGCUC, which is responsible for Theft of Government Property violations, coordinate this matter with Lt. Col. Lebourdais and that FBIHQ honor DOMS' request by having our field divisions notify those State police agencies involved.
